A message from our CEO

Lisa Cowley

Thank you so much for choosing to support Beacon by joining in the fun of Bright for Sight.

Our local community has been so kind to us, especially during such a tough couple of years. Your support means the world to us, so a huge thank you!

In this pack, you'll find loads of fun ideas to help you make the most of Bright For Sight day and raise lots of money for Beacon.

We can't wait to see pictures of your brightest outfits! Don't forget to tag us using the hashtag

#BrightForBeacon

Did you Know????

Bright contrasting colours are one of the simplest ways to support people with sight loss....think using a highlighter in a text book

A donation of £3 could help us to provide 15 minutes of low vision advice for someone with sight loss

A donation of £10 could help us to provide a session of sight loss advice support

How to get involved

Put up a poster

It's the best way to tell everyone about the event (we have a great poster included in this pack!)

Bright Colours Only!

Make sure friends, colleagues, family all know that bright colours are mandatory - the brighter the better!

Think about the extras

A cake sale, tombola and sweepstakes are all good ways to add fun to your event and to raise extra money for Beacon

Let's talk money!

There are three main ways to send your donation to Beacon:

You can bank the money you raise and make a donation via our website www.beaconvision.org

You could send a cheque to:
Beacon Centre for the Blind,
Wolverhampton Road East,
Sedgley,
Wolverhampton,
WV4 6AZ

(cheque made payable to: Beacon Centre for the Blind)

or you can call the Fundraising Team on 01902 880111 and arrange a time and date to drop the cash into our Centre or nearest charity shop. You can also email supportus@beaconvision.org

Thank you for taking part in this year's Bright for Sight, we know things are tough for everyone at the moment with the cost of living so even if you just take part to help us raise awareness of Beacon, it would mean the world to us!

Name:

Nursery:

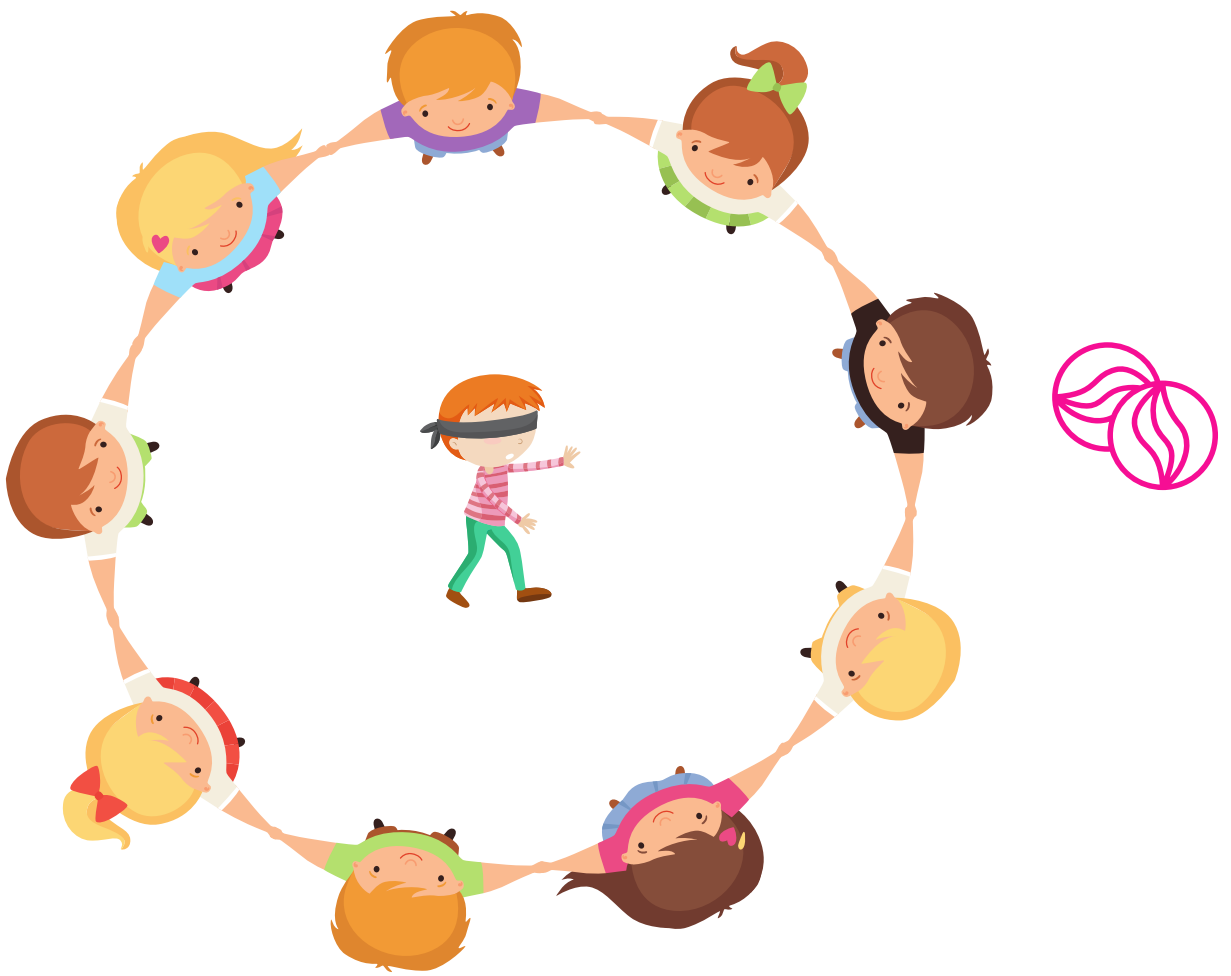

Blindfold 'What is it game'

Get the group sitting on the floor. Group leader to prepare a tray of items and place a tea towel over the tray. Blindfold one child and ask them to find specific items on the tray. The leader can only describe the item and not say the name of the object. The child can only use listening skills and the feel of touch to find the specific object. Do not use sharp objects or anything that people could injure themselves with.

Blindfold 'Circle of silence game'

Great with groups of around 10 to 20. Group to stand in an inward facing circle with an arms length between each person. One person is given an object that if jarred will make a noise, a large tin with a few marbles in it works really well. The tin must be passed from one person to the next as quietly as they can. One of the group wears a blindfold and asked to stand in the middle of the circle. Their aim is to listen out for the noise of the tin and marbles. If they hear it they should point to where the noise comes from. Whoever made the noise takes the place of the person in the middle of the group.

It's not a fundraiser without bunting!

The next couple of pages contain bunting flags in different colours, print them out, fold the rectangle over a piece of string, secure with glue or tape, repeat until you have the required length!
